Question 3

Vivian is supposed to visit a friend's house for Chinese New Year tomorrow. He forgot which MRT station he's supposed to meet his friend at, but he's too embarrassed to ask his friend again. He knows the station is somewhere on the Downtown Line. Perhaps retracing the journey he took today will help him remember:

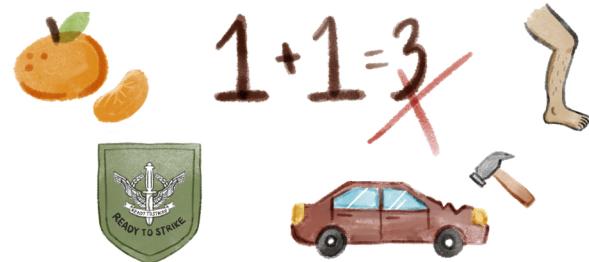

Before visiting his grandma for Chinese New Year, Vivian cycled from his house in Marsiling to the supermarket to buy some tangerines. He then cycled to his grandma's house in Yew Tee. But before he could exchange his tangerines for a red packet, his grandma scolded him for wearing a black shirt. So, he cycled home to park his bike and walked to the clothing store in Choa Chu Kang to buy a new red shirt. After changing into his new shirt at home, he didn't want to risk perspiring in it, so he took the bus to his grandma's house instead. Afterwards, he took the bus home and walked to Choa Chu Kang to catch the LRT to visit his friend, Tac How, who lives in Teck Whye. He then ate dinner at BPPizza Diner in Bukit Panjang. Finally, he took a bus to visit his sibling in Cashew.
